ABOUT YOUR JUDGES.

Dog Judge: Ro Cox

Having been deprived of a dog when I was growing up, it was a steep learning curve with my first Irish Setter but after the fateful words were said, 'that's a nice bitch why don't you show her?' the rest is history. I already had two Irish Setters when I first met Nigel, my now husband, so it was a case of love me love my dogs which thankfully he did!

On a trip up to Scotland the year we got married we bought back our foundation bitch Sametsuz Mak'n Waves At Tiroen.

We've only bred every few years when we wanted to keep something but we are very proud of all of our dogs. With living on Jersey, it can be a challenge at times to compete in the UK but we have regularly trips away and we have also ventured into Europe with good success and lots of fun making lots of friends along the way. When it comes to my judging, I have been fortunate to have been offered judging appointments with a good geographical spread around the UK and also abroad. I've also been able to judge other breeds in the Gundog Group including the Gundog Group at Open level. I was passed to award tickets in Irish Setters in 2015 and have since judged them at Championship Show level a number of times and I'm also thrilled to have been invited to judge English Springers at CC level next year.

One never stops learning and over the years I have endeavoured to undertake training whenever possible. When Covid hit, lots of BAD days went online and it meant that I've been able to access an amazing insight into many other breeds led by knowledgeable and enthusiastic speakers from my home in Jersey. I know not the same as a hands-on but seeking out those dogs when away helps consolidate what I've learnt about the different breeds.

For over ten years I was involved on the committee of the Kennel Club of Jersey. I took on the role of Press Officer and writing the newsletter and am still very much involved with the club helping behind the scenes. I also still help with basic obedience training classes and Ringcraft and am also involved with the KC Good Citizens Dog Scheme and assess for their Bronze, Silver and Gold Awards.

When I got my first dog, I became involved with Therapy Dogs, initially with Pets As Therapy and then with Therapy Dogs Nationwide. Over the years I've visited with my dogs at various Care and Residential Homes, our local Hospice and Hospital along with Primary and Secondary Schools.

I now assess and support new volunteers for our thriving Therapy Dogs Nationwide Jersey Branch and also organise talks around the islands which helps spread the news about what we do. It is still a wondrous thing to see the amazing positive impact our wonderful dogs are making in the community.

I feel very privileged to be asked to judge at the ISBC Ch Sh and I am very much looking forward to it.

Bitch Judge: Julie Greenan.

Irish have been in my life for 50 years thanks to my mum and for me it is an eternal love affair.

My earliest memory of showing was at a fete in Studley where I took our then dog in, Brandy, where I won the class for 'Most Handsome Dog'. Mom and dad purchased a second dog and my sister and dad 'dabbled' lightly at shows, mainly City of Birmingham because it was local, no travelling far and wide for my dad! However, they were not bitten by the bug and it didn't last long.

I took up showing when I was introduced to Nigel Naylor of the Anlory kennel. I purchased my first dog Jordon closely followed by a second, Conor. In total I had five dogs from Nigel, culminating with my last Anlory dog, Aidan. All have been shown with relative success, winning RCC's, CC's, JW's and Best in Show's.

I first started judging in 2005 and I awarded my first set of CC's in 2018 at Blackpool Championship Show. I have since judged at another two general Championship Shows. I have also judged abroad in Holland and Germany.

However, It is a great honour for any judge to be asked to judge their lovely breed at a Club Show and I am so grateful for the opportunity that the Committee have afforded me, and I can't wait to judge your lovely girls.

DOGS IN WHICH OFFICERS AND COMMITTEE MEMBERS HAVE AN INTEREST, SHALL NOT BE EXHIBITED AT ISBC CLUB SHOWS

HEALTH AND SAFETY

A nominated Safety Officer will be in attendance throughout the show. Exhibitors and spectators are reminded that just as the Irish Setter Breeders Club has responsibility to ensure the health and safety of all those attending their event, all those present have a duty and responsibility for their own safety. They are therefore expected to take the greatest care to avoid all uneven surfaces, guy ropes, and other hazards, which are inevitable and an integral element of a dog show. Those bringing and using portable items of equipment such as folding chairs, trolleys, cages and grooming tables also have a responsibility to ensure that their tools, equipment and collapsible furniture is used and erected safely and does not constitute a hazard to others. Exhibitors are also reminded that they should wear appropriate clothing and footwear for the prevailing conditions on the site. Exhibitors show at their own risk, if conditions are not ideal or are unsafe, they may withdraw their dogs from classes.

All electrical equipment MUST be PAT tested with an up-to-date certificate. Any exhibitor wishing to use an electrical appliance e.g. hairdryer, must seek the permission of the building's landlord and MUST produce a current PAT label attached to the appliance, to the Show Manager, otherwise the equipment will be removed by members of the committee and returned at the end of the show.

Your dog is vulnerable and at risk during hot weather and the Royal Kennel Club offers the following guidance to help guide you through the dos and don'ts travelling to and whilst at R.K.C. licensed events.

When travelling to a show please take a moment to consider whether the route to the show is on a busy holiday route and leave earlier to avoid increased time in traffic jams.

If your vehicle is not air-conditioned seriously consider whether travelling to the show is a good idea at all. The vehicle should be as fully ventilated as possible, and plenty of stops should be taken, with lots of water available to drink.

Ensure your dog is not sitting in full sunlight. There should be plenty of free-flowing air around the dog.

When at the show, never leave your dog in the vehicle.

Keep the dog in the shade – take your own shade for example a large umbrella and always have plenty of water available to drink so your dog stays well hydrated.

Avoid your dog taking part in unnecessary exertion, or from standing in exposed sunlight for extended lengths of time.

Remember, if you feel hot your dog is very likely to feel much hotter and dehydrated, and this could lead to dire results. Please look after your dog's welfare.

WARNING: IF YOUR DOG IS FOUND TO BE A RISK, FORCIBLE ENTRY TO YOUR VEHICLE MAY BE NECESSARY WITHOUT LIABILITY FOR ANY DAMAGE CAUSED.

17. Not For Competition entries are accepted. Details of each dog so entered must be recorded on the entry form and must be Royal Kennel Club registered.
18. No modifications will be made to this Schedule except by permission of the General Committee of The Royal Kennel Club, which will be followed by advertisement in the Canine Press wherever possible.
